Law & Inequality: A Journal of Theory and Practice is published twice a year at the University of Minnesota Law School. It is typeset at The Sheridan Press, Hanover, Pennsylvania 17331.

The current subscription rate is $30.00 per year (domestic), $36.00 per year (foreign). Single copies of issues in the current volume are $18.00 (domestic), $20 per year (foreign). Subscriptions are free to prisoners, subject to availability. Notifications of change of address should include old and new addresses with zip codes. Subscriptions are renewed automatically upon expiration, unless a written request for discontinuation is received. Back issues and volumes are available from William S. Hein & Co., Inc., 24 East Ferry Road, Buffalo, New York 14209.

Law & Inequality invites manuscripts addressing issues of inequality in law and society. We welcome articles from professors in law and other disciplines and practicing attorneys and judges in all areas of law. We accept articles in traditional legal format and also welcome pieces in less traditional forms—e.g., fiction, essays, letters. Please submit manuscripts electronically in Microsoft Word 2007 or newer. For more information about submissions, visit <http://scholarship.law.umn.edu/lawineq/policies.html>.

Articles are considered for their focus on issues of inequality, substantive merit, professional interest, appeal to readers both within and outside the legal profession, clarity of expression, timeliness, and style. The Editorial Board of Law & Inequality reserves the right to condition acceptance of articles for publication upon revision of material to conform to our criteria and subjective review for substantive accuracy.

Opinions expressed in Law & Inequality are those of the contributors and are not the views of Law & Inequality, its editors and staff, or the University of Minnesota Law School.
